

About Me - Diane Lidz

Who is she? Diane Lidz...commercial real estate attorney...MRC Director... MRC Corporate Secretary

Q & A with Diane Lidz

Why did you choose to serve on the Marietta Redevelopment Corporation?

I applied for membership to the MRC after seeing an advertisement for an open position, shortly after I completed Women on Board training in 2008. The training encouraged members to join a non-profit board. I saw the MRC opening as an opportunity to use my real estate experience to contribute to my community.

Do you serve on any other committees or do any other volunteer work?

I act as Legal Council for my East Cobb synagogue.

Can you tell us a little about your family here in Marietta?

My family has lived in Marietta since 1993. My husband and I have a daughter who graduated from Marietta High School and a son who currently attends in the International Baccalaureate program.

What is Marietta's best kept secret?

The independent School System.

What do you think Marietta will be like 10 years from now?

Ten years from now Marietta will be a more vibrant community.

How would you measure Marietta's success over the next decade?

I would measure success based on increased tax base, less residential rental property and more homeownership

If you could only choose one, would you live, work or play in Marietta and Why?

I would live in Marietta because of the quality of life.

What would people be surprised to learn about you?

People would be surprised to learn that despite my busy schedule I find the time to do yoga.

What's your ideal way to spend a Friday night in Marietta?

My favorite thing to do in Marietta on a Friday night is the First Friday Art Walk hosted on the Historic Marietta Square.

What's your ideal way to spend a Saturday afternoon in Marietta?

On Saturday's I enjoy walking in my neighborhood or the trails at Kennesaw Mountain.
