

About Me – Randy Weiner

Who is he? Randy Weiner... Small Business Owner...School Board Member...MRC Director

Q & A with Randy Weiner

Why did you choose to serve on the Marietta Redevelopment Corporation?

The MRC needed a new representative from the School Board. I wanted to monitor the impact of redevelopment on the school system and help make the city more attractive to homeowners and retailers. A strong school system is a big part of that.

Why did you choose to serve on the Marketing and Disposition Committee?

I wanted to help market the City Schools to potential home buyers and support efforts to increase homeownership.

Do you serve on any other committees or do any other volunteer work?

I currently serve on the Board of Directors for Cobb Landmarks and the Marietta Board of Education.

Can you tell us a little about your family here in Marietta?

My wife Kelley and I are both graduates of Marietta High School. We have two daughters, Grace who is in 7th grade at Marietta Middle School and Libby who attends 4th grade at West Side Elementary.

Describe Marietta in 1 or 2 Sentences

Marietta is a city of neighborhoods surrounding the dynamic downtown square where most days one will see kids walking to school, folks eating and socializing on the square and people enjoying one of our many parks.

What is Marietta's best kept secret?

The Marietta Sixth Grade Academy. Parents love it.

What do you think Marietta will be like 10 years from now?

A more vibrant city than it is now, with many more young families living in the city and taking advantage of our excellent school system.

How would you measure Marietta's success over the next decade?

By the increase in young professionals and retailers located in Marietta.

What would people be surprised to learn about you?

That I ran in the Atlanta Marathon (and finished) back in 1998.

If you could only choose one, would you live, work or play in Marietta and Why?

I'd live in Marietta because of the school system.

What's your ideal way to spend a Friday night in Marietta?

At a Marietta High football game at Northcutt Stadium.

What's your ideal way to spend a Saturday afternoon in Marietta?

Working in my yard or going to one of my daughter's soccer games.
