

GARY D. CURTIS

Gary D. Curtis has been a professional watercolor painter for the last thirty years. A native of Long Beach, California, he has resided with his family in the Atlanta area during the time that he made a career change from corporate business to fine art. He has exhibited his paintings in hundreds of juried art festivals where he has won numerous awards. His work has been featured on the cover of Artist Magazine and on the "Watercolor Page" of American Artist magazine. His paintings grace the homes of numerous collectors and have been acquired by both Corporate and Museum collections

Featured in "American Artist Magazine", May 1994, Watercolor Page
