Linemen Compete in 19th Annual Georgia Lineman's Rodeo

On May 1-2, 2015, eight Marietta Power and Water linemen competed at the 19th Annual Georgia Lineman's Rodeo held at Camp John Hope near Fort Valley, Georgia. A total of 51 apprentices and 20 three-man journeyman teams from Georgia municipalities and cooperative electric utility companies participated in the event.

The training each participant goes through for these events is both physical and academic. "I've trained line workers in the past and I can confirm that this exercise is an excellent way to increase the development of these folks, said Tom Bell, Marietta Power Electrical Director. After seeing this event for 40 years, I've come to see extreme value in these competitions. There's a team spirit and excitement, it's a really positive experience."

Marietta employees won a total of ten awards at the Linemen's Rodeo:

Municipal Division – Apprentices

Cody Davis, Tyler Toler, Corey Hursh, Kyle Newberry, Eric Crisler and Coach Nick Sawyer
