

City of Marietta
Powder Springs Street Streetscapes
August 2, 2010 Bi-Weekly Schedule Update

- Construction on the median south of Chestnut Hill road is complete.
- Removal of the overhead power lines along Powder Springs Street began on July 29 and should be complete by August 16. Southern poles have already been topped.
- Paving along the Powder Springs Street Streetscape should begin August 2. Milling should begin on August 3. Paving will occur overnight and could extend to August 10. (School starts on August 12 at all Marietta City Schools).
- Construction on the entrance to the Big Lots shopping center should be complete on August 2.
- Installation of pedestrian and street lights along the south and east side of the street should begin August 2.
- Ornamental bus shelters should be installed by August 20.
- Traffic and mast arm signal construction should begin August 15.
- Curb work at the northwestern corner of Sandtown Road is ongoing and should be complete by August 2.
- Construction on the new plaza at the intersection of Powder Springs Street and Chestnut Hill Road is ongoing.
- Construction at the intersection of Powder Springs Street and Sandtown Road is ongoing.