Art in the Park returns to historic Marietta Square September 5-7, 2011, for three days of outdoor artistic enjoyment. Each year, the festival attracts artists from across the nation for a juried art show and artist market. Over Labor Day weekend, festivalgoers will enjoy perusing over 150 artists who showcase their talent through media including painting, photography, pottery, sculpture and jewelry. In addition to the artist market, visitors can stroll the Interactive Art Alley and create their own make-and-take projects.
