

Become a YELLS Leadership Coach

Help our youth realize the power of relationship-building!

As a Leadership Coach, you guide youth as they develop and demonstrate leadership skills, form authentic relationships with community members and gain real-world practice in building their networking skills. Coaches serve as a support and resource as youth lead weekly workshops and plan major community service projects.

I would like to serve as a Service Project Coach

Teams of Bigs and Littles work together to design and implement amazing Community Service Projects. As a Service Project Coach you will support our teams in this process. Service Project Coach Responsibilities include:

- ✓ Attend 4 meetings – Leadership Orientation/Service Project selection and work session #1 (Jan. 14th); Saturday work session #2 (Feb. 11); Saturday work session #3 (March 17); Service Project event day
- ✓ Provide guidance in between meetings through emails, phone calls, or meetings depending on your availability.

Please check the Service Project(s) with which you're most interested in working:

- Community Peace: Promoting Peace through a community pot-luck where neighbors share cultural dishes & learn about tolerance
- Environmental Sustainability: Utilizing their youth-led Community Garden to teach community members about environmental issues
- Community Building: Holding a community field day to bring Police and the Franklin Road neighborhood together
- Youth Self Esteem: Designing a series of arts-based workshops to build self-esteem for elementary school youth in the YELLS Afterschool Program
- Reading Revolution: Implementing family reading parties on Franklin Road to promote literacy
