

(11) Council Bill #50974, Ordinance #3095, Amending the Code of Ordinances, Chapter 2, Article IV, Division 1, by adding Section 2-76, providing for employee benefits.

Councilman Cummins stated the proposed ordinance was in addition to the Pension Committee which did not deal with all employee benefits, i.e., health, holidays, vacation, sick leave, use of City vehicles, parking, etc.

Upon motion of Councilman Cummins, seconded by Councilman Garriss, it was moved and carried to amend Section 1 of the Bill to read as follows:

"The Council for the City of Marietta shall review the employees benefit plan currently set forth in Ordinance #3042, dated September 30, 1973, or any other employee benefit plan hereafter adopted by the City Council at least once every twelve (12) months."

The vote to amend the ordinance as follows: "For" - Councilmen Cummins, Garriss, Brannen, Peek. "Opposed" - Councilmen Fields, Read.

Upon motion of Councilman Cummins, seconded by Councilman Garriss, it was moved and carried to approve the ordinance as amended.

The City Manager suggested if Council desired, the motion be amended that the review become a part of the budget consideration.

Councilman Cummins stated he would not object to same with the understanding the review to take place during six-month intervals.

The vote as follows: "For" - Councilman Cummins, Garriss, Peek, Fields, Read. "Abstaining" - Councilman Brannen.
