VINE (Victim Information and Notification Everyday) is a confidential service that you can register to access custody information. Just call and stop the service from calling you again.

To receive notifications, you can register to receive notifications. Follow the instructions to access custody information.

Contact information:

VINE is confidential. The officer will not know you are registered with VINE. You can register multiple phone numbers and email addresses for notifications.

When VINE calls, listen to the message. Then enter the 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) followed by the pound (#) key when asked.

If you do not register a phone number that rings to a number listed by VINE, then VINE will continue to call you.

Do not register a phone number that rings to a number listed by VINE.

VINE is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. To assist you, operators are available.

If you register your PIN or cancel notification, operators who can help you register your PIN or cancel notification. The officer will not know you are registered with VINE. You may get a call from custody changes, you may get a call from custody changes when an offender is in custody.

VINE calls are automatic. When an offender is in custody, VINE will call the phone number you have registered.

When VINE calls, listen to the message. Then enter the 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) followed by the pound (#) key when asked.

If you need to be notified, call 911 immediately.

When VINE calls, listen to the message. Then enter the 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) followed by the pound (#) key when asked.

If you need to be notified, call 911 immediately.

When VINE calls, listen to the message. Then enter the 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) followed by the pound (#) key when asked.

If you need to be notified, call 911 immediately.

When VINE calls, listen to the message. Then enter the 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) followed by the pound (#) key when asked.

If you need to be notified, call 911 immediately.